

From: Department for Education: Becoming a Teacher department.for.education.becoming.a.teacher@notifications.service.gov.uk

Subject: You did not meet the offer conditions for Computing with ICT (2P3B) at UCL, University College London

Date: 26 Aug 2025 at 17:31:25

To: cian.lyons@icloud.com

GOV•UK

Hello Cian

Your application for Computing with ICT (2P3B) has been unsuccessful. UCL, University College London have said that you do not meet these conditions of the offer they made to you:

- GCSE English and Maths grade 4 (or a UCL approved equivalent) required plus a satisfactory DBS check and Occupational Health Clearance Two satisfactory references must be received by the deadline stated in your offer letter.

Unfortunately, you will not be able to join the course. Contact UCL, University College London if you need further advice.

You can apply again

You should make sure you will meet the conditions of any future offers first.

All courses will require a background and criminal records check known as a disclosure and barring service (DBS) check as a condition of their offer.

Some courses will require you to do a subject knowledge

enhancement (SKE) course, for example if your degree subject is in a subject that's different to the one you have applied to teach, or if you received your qualifications more than 5 years ago.

All courses will request references. Find out how to choose people to give a reference for you.

Sign in to apply again.

Get help

If you need support with your application, you can speak to a teacher training adviser. Call 0800 389 2500 or chat online.

Monday to Friday, 8:30am to 5:30pm UK time (except public holidays).