Linda Murphy, I have stopped reading after your first paragraph. You have mis-paraphrased the order of events.

You are incorrect.

The final clarification on this matter, will be explained to you by the Ombudsman

This website <https://www.dkit.ie/student-life/student-services/accommodation.html> and my knowledge of the obligations of Disability Advisors are contrary to this web you are weaving doubling down on your ableism.

How dare you put this much effort into an incorrect dismissal. You are INCORRECT, stating outright fallacies as they are truth.

In your position of power, you are certainly hubrisful.

Do you think, honestly, this is the best way to treat a homeless disabled student?

Do you?

That isn't rhetorical, I want you to reply to me explaining your absolute lack of empathy and your overly estimatory conclusions stated as fact.

You have not taken one communication from me seriously. So I will have to respond to you under the full purview of my rights as a disabled student of this tertiary educational institute of mine.

I have already agreed to get DKIT Student Accommodation to live alone for the summer for €750 a month. You, madam, are a gaslighter. You have put so much effort into HINDERING my education, DESPITE my disability? You will have to be stopped from communicating with ANY students in the future.

Would. You. Not. Agree?

You and Geraldine Kneel have given me NO accommodations for my accurately registered disability. That is illegal under the Equal Status Act / Disability Advisor Regulations / Disability Fund appropriation law.

True or false, Linda?

Cian

Dear Cian

I am writing to provide final clarification on the matters you have raised again with the Disability Service regarding Dundalk IT accommodation, the Disability Office, and your recent communications. As outlined in my previous correspondence to you these queries have been escalated to me as manager of the service.

Firstly, I must stress that your query regarding accommodation has been fully addressed in my detailed written response on Monday 23rd June, which outlined the role and limitations of the Disability Service and other student supports. To reiterate:

- The Disability Service does not manage or control student accommodation at Dundalk IT.
- The Fund for Students with Disabilities does not cover accommodation costs under its guidelines (please see sections B6 and B7 of the FSD-Guidelines_2024_25.pdf, previously provided).
- You were directed to the Student Assistance Fund, which may offer limited, once-off support, though this is not a long-term accommodation solution. You were also offered to let me know if you required guidance on accessing that support.

Repeatedly contacting staff with the same query, particularly after a clear response has been issued, places undue strain on our support services and is not an effective way to resolve your concerns. You have been provided with all available information and options within the scope of our services. I must now advise that no further clarification will be provided on this matter.

Additionally, your statement implying a professional obligation to facilitate accommodation is inaccurate and inappropriate. For the avoidance of doubt:

- There is no formal relationship between the DKIT Disability Service and any accommodation services
- DkIT do not own or manage accommodation services.

Given the circumstances you described regarding housing and wellbeing, I strongly urge you to engage with the Student Assistance Fund (SAF) and with the DKIT Counselling Service. To make an emergency application for funding through SAF you need to email saf@dkit.ie fully outlining the change in circumstances since your last communication with that Service. The Counselling Service can also offer emotional and practical support as outlined in my last communication. Their resources can be accessed here: <https://www.dkit.ie/student-life/student-services/counselling/>.

Please understand this is the final correspondence regarding this specific issue unless new, relevant information arises. Continued repetitive queries that disregard provided responses will not receive further replies.

I appreciate the challenges you are facing and trust you will use the appropriate pathways and support services available.

Kind regards,

Linda Murphy

Subject: Update days later ? Re: Voice Mail reply

Hi Geraldine and did you see my other two voicemails? I am still homeless and would appreciate help arranging the Dundalk IT accommodation that we were discussing on Friday and Saturday it is now Wednesday and I am still homeless so can you help me as my disability advisor?

my issue has previously stated was not monetary. I just cannot pay the upfront fee upfront so can you please state if it is your professional choice that I should skip change together in advance and then get the accommodation next month or are you insisting that there is no relationship between the DKIT disability office and DKIT accommodation regardless of the fact that obviously related PS great news me having a panic attack from losing a full access to all of my accounts just after I submitted a complaint about how I was treated, turns out it was just a severe coincidence that seems very unlikely to this mathematician :-)

Hoping to hear from you soon, seeing as I doubt there are more priorities at this hour of the summer in terms of disabled students to support.

Geraldine, I did not request moneys. You utilise the Disabled Students fund to support disabled students.

This disabled student is an an emergency life threatening situation and requires emergency accommodation in the tertiary level institution he is registered with.

Are you claiming emergency accommodation doesn't exist as a service available at DKIT?

I am in receipt of Disability Allowance due to childhood and adult abuse at the hands of my family. I have been hit multiple times in the last few days.

Attached is the court order I began to protect my grandmother from abuse at the hands of my brother and mother. Since then they've beat me out of their house. I am poor, in pain, disability exacerbated and alllll i want is somewhere safe to work on my applied data science project.

Is this not the purpose of the disabled students fund, emergency assistance fund, or accomodation-voucher-office? like i said i can pay weekly each wednesday but ant afford the €750 a month in advance dkit accom offered me

What IS your job then, Geraldine?

I have my free travel pass and can be there by 6pm.

It would save my life.

Attached is evidence.

Cian

Good Afternoon Cian,

I have received your voice mail and am sorry to hear you are in such a situation at the moment. I can advise that all the services for students are available, the Disability Service does not have money/funding to give to students, however I can forward your details to any of the other services if you wish or you can contact them directly.

I advise that you contact our Counselling or Wellbeing staff at counsellor@dkit.ie or for financial assistance studentsupport@dkit.ie information is on the Moodle Hub for all of the services, let me know if you would like me to contact any or all of them on your behalf and I can do that.

Let me know if this is of any help or if you need something else at this time.

Geraldine.
